

Academic Network

Global Challenges. Science, Technology and Medicine

Workshop program

Venue: Norwegian University Center in St Petersburg (Kaluzhskiy pereulok, 3)

Wednesday, November 15

9:30 Welcome and Centre Introduction

9:45 Opening Talk & Discussion

Kristin Asdal, Oslo:

Enacting the good economy: The little tools of valuations – in STS and in innovation

10:30-12:00 Beyond One Health I: Cosmopolitics and More-than-Human Global Health

Presentations (max. 15- 20 min) and discussion. Chair: Johanna Gonzalves Martin

Alena Kamenshchikova, Maastricht/Tomsk: The One Health Approach to Antimicrobial

Resistance: Controversies of Inclusion

Klasien Horstman, Maastricht: Stool and Stories (via skype)

Olga Fedorova, Tomsk: Opisthorchiasis in Western Siberia: One-Health approach for the control of the disease

12:00-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00 Understanding Health Communication

Presentations (max. 15 min) & discussion. Chair: Olga Fedorova

Ekaterina Borozdina, St Petersburg: Transformations of professionalism in Post-Soviet Healthcare

Denis Tyufilin, Tomsk: Face 2 Face. Clinical Trials in Russia Through Patients' Eyes

Susanne Bauer, Oslo: Following the Algorithm. The Social Life of Risk Scores

Ekaterina Koroleva, Tomsk: Epidemiological research in the Tomsk region

15:00-15:15 Coffee break

15:15-17:00 Chronic Health: the role of citizens and DIT (Do-It-Together) in designing a healthy future

Talk and workshop facilitated by Sabine Wildevuur, Creative Care Lab, Waag Society

Thursday, November 16

9:30-12:00 Between State Public Health and Do-it-Yourself movements

Presentations (max. 15 - 20 min) & discussion.

Chair: Evgeniya Popova

Jan Reinert Karlsen, Bergen: The human deposit: The problem of conceptualising the human genome in the making of Norwegian biobank regulations

Olga Ustyuzhantseva, Tomsk: Inclusive innovation in health care in India

Olga Zvonareva, Maastricht/Tomsk: Rethinking participation: insights from post-socialist settings

Ana Delgado, Oslo: Antibiotic resistance: The infrastructuring of a public issue.

12:00-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00 Beyond One Health II – Politics of Inclusion

Presentations (max. 15 - 20 min) & discussion. Chair: TBA

Lyubov Torlopova, Tomsk: STS approaches to the construction of disability in Russia

Alexandra Kurlenkova, Moscow: Sensory-technological practices of people with vision impairments: some conceptual and practical thoughts on ways to better social inclusion

Johanna Goncalves Martín, Lausanne: Incorporating new others in One-Health cosmopolitics: objects and spirits

15:00-15:15 Coffee break

15:00-17:00 Summing up and Planning

Chairs: Olga Zvonareva, Evgeniya Popova, Susanne Bauer

Summing up and planning next workshop (Oslo)

Publications, e.g. special issue and possible outlets

Funding opportunities for research and for curriculum development (from Norway and elsewhere)